WAR OF THE ROSES.

The Houses of York and Lancaster Represented by Lovely Young Ladies.

THE FIGHT A VERY PRETTY ONE.

tended the Bazaar Last Night and Witnessed the Manoeuvres of the

The baraar for the benefit of the Home er Incurables was more largely patronnight than on the opening eve the large drill-hall in the Regially decorated in red and white, was ewded with an eager, surging crowd of who thronged around the vas borths and bought liberally of the sarre, both fancy and useful, which were the floses, which was fought by twenaln Morgan R. Mills, of Company Those participating Misses Lucy Atkinson, May Bran-Mattie Ladie, Mattle Cun, Myrtle Miss Hern, Nellie Birdsong, Vinston, Lily Wood, Trench Shei May Lives, Esther Atkinson, Minook, Henlon Brander, Miss Ada Harrison, Miss us Wilton, May Thaw, and May Bel-

War of the Roses began in 1455, d thirty years. It was a contest on the houses of York and Lancasrival branches of the royal family that of the Lancasterians a this contest there were many but three battles were pre-terrible. The first, at St. Al-the commencement of the war. and, at Towton Field, more men were engaged. The third powerth Field, closed the this fight King Richard III., ouse or fork, was slain the Earl of Richmond. Todor, the Earl of Richmond, which fell from Richard's head and there placed on Henry Tu-and he was saluted as King the first of the Tudors. This sed the war, but it remained e hollest vow that man can make, golden thread in life. amalgamation, Henry arried afterwards Lady Bessee, t daughter of Edward IV. He h took for his badge a great white and half red. It is carved he beautiful burial chapel which I to be annexed to Westminster

he entire war was fought in a most Captain Mills marched into the He put them through all the ma-res prescribed by the tactics, and responded to his orders promptly the manner. They were then brought is halt, and were put through an unique beautiful fan-drill.

the conclusion of this drill the other of the young lady participants, used in white, and looking as lovely a dream, marched into the hall, and a put through the same manoeuvres, were their predecessors in red. This cluded, the band struck up Mendelsa's wedding-march, and a dozen litmingers, all dressed in Continental s, all dressed in Continenta; with flowing trains, entered, suple of little ones who repre-ary Tudor and Lady Besse to a throne, which had been the purpose, and the marriage

THEIR DECISION RESERVED.

he whole ceremony occupied about ee quarters of an hour, and was expreity and interesting. Capir, at which time a handsom esented to the most popular in the winning army. The Roses will be fought over ay and Friday evening during Before the drill commenced gran. Before the drill commenced ebt Captain Cunningham, on be-the lady managers, presented Cap-lle with a bandsome bouquet, ebt a drama, entitled, "Lottery" which has been arranged by Mrs. Harding, of Manchester, will be ted in Sanger Hall.

sented in Sanger Hall, he began is open from 11 A. M. until P. M., and during the twelve hours als are served in the restaurant. From opening hour until 6 P. M. no advision is charged to the hall. harged to the hall, yterian yacht was launched ht, after the opening ceres Louise Mayo emptied the a bottle of wine over the bristened it "Defender,"

F. was in attendance. Best norrow night the Stuart Horseill attend; Saturday night Troop cavalry, will be present; Monday mpany C will attend, and on ill wing Wednesday night Company

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE.

A Beautiful Production of Shakespeare's Comedy Last Night. production of "The Merchant of

at the Academy last night capared the public fancy; and in every arter it was sincerely felt and promed that here, at last, was the perwas round, symmetrical, and thoevery detail being subordinate to at general effect, and no effort dag made toward overweening individu-despeare's conception of Shylock has been in controversy. But the fit of opinion and the spirit and of the text would justify a present-of the Jew as the incarnation, not of svarice, and hate, but of the terrible Mosaic law of justice. Is the high view of the part, and, adving Shakespeare it is safe to present the part of the part of the high view. Charles Hanford takes high view of him. This Jew "feeds the ancient grudge" against Anuntil the law of Portia, more subthan equitable, interferes to thwart but, also, he avenges the wrongs his "sacred nation" has suffered, ideal of it was right, his grasp of are's conception of Shylock has is "sacred nation" has suffered, cal of it was right, his grasp of his execution of it flexible, with and affinent with intellectual power. Portia of Miss O'Brien was statefascinating; a woman to inspire Dassanio of Mr. Ellhu Spencer was dand effective. Meo and Juliet" will be given at attnee to-day, and an elaborate pro-

WANT THE PRISONERS KEPT HERE

Captain Wise Has Submitted a Prop-The question of whether or not the mardefers of Mrs. Lucy Jane Pollard thall be taken back to Lunenburg to be present on Monday when Judge Mann makes his motion to amend the record in their efforts are being made to keep be pursued.

It is contended that there is no necessity for the prisoners being in court Monday, as the motion of Judge Mann will simply be one to amend the record, in order to show that the juries when out of the court-room were in charge of deputies.

The Governor is firm in his intention to send troops with the prisoners in event that they go, and this will entail a great expense on the State.

NOT DECIDED AS TO AN APPEAL Counsel Have Some Time Yet-Lady

Who Made the Remark.

Messrs. Hill Carter and J. Garland Pollard, counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Todd, who were recently sued by Miss Louisa J. Gibson, are undecided as to whether or not they will take an appeal from the verdict of the jury in the Law and Equity Court awarding Miss Gibson St. 250 damages. They are allowed thirty and Equity Court awarding Miss Gibson $3,200 damages. They are allowed thirty days in which to file their bills of exception and take an appeal, and it is hardly probable that they will make known their intention until just before the time expires.

Dr. Hatcher announced some days becore the trial of the case that he would pay all the costs in the case, and the judgment, too, if any was awarded, as Mrs. Todd's visit to Miller & Rhoads's store to see Miss Gibson was in the interest of his family. Mr. Todd is quoted as saying that this was the understanding from the start. It is believed that the friends of Dr. Hatcher in the city will come to his aid and not permit him to bear the entire burden alone.

It was reported yesterday that a young lady had been found who asserts that she made the statement to Mrs. Goddin which was said by the latter to have emanated from Miss Gibson. Mr. R. L. Montague, of counsel for Miss Gibson, was asked concerning this, but he would make no positive answer. He intimated, however, that such was the case, and that the young lady very much resembled Miss Gibson.

She Wore Bloomers and Rode a Wheel.

A lady, attired in bloomers, rode her bleyele up and down Grace and Frank-lin streets yesterday morning and creat-ed quite a ripple of excitement. Nobody seemed to know her.

Miss Alys Connally arrived in Richmond on Saturday.

Mr. P. F. Conway, of Danville, was in

Editor Hill, of the South Boston Times, was in the city yesterday. Mr. William C. Mayo, of Washington, D., is in the city for a few days.

Miss Laura Jenkins, of Baltimore, will be the guest of Miss Connally this week. The Old Dominion Democratic Club will hold its regular meeting to-night at 8:30

Mr. R. A. Dunlop, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is in New York for a few days. Mrs. S. E. Woodfin, of 2302 east Grace street, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Morris, of Charlottesville, Dr. Thomas Alsop, of New York, is visiting his father, Mr. Boswell Alsop, 819 east Leigh street, Commander W. B. Rogers, United States may, was in the city yesterday, a guest at the Jefferson.

Mrs. Mary Randolph Tabb, of "Wood-stock." Mathews county, is visiting her son, Mr. G. Randolph Tabb, of this city. The United States Circuit Court of Apwill meet here to-morrow, Judges aton, Goff, and Brawley will pre-

Mrs. M. E. Walker and her grand-daughter, Miss Eunice Walker, are spend-ing a few weeks at the Atlanta Exposi-tion.

Mr. William Preston, who has been in Lexington during the autumn, has re-turned to the city much improved in health. Mrs. Sarah McGehee, from near Farmville, after spending several weeks in this city, has left to visit relatives in Norfolk. Mr. Sylvanus Stokes, formerly of this city, now proprietor of the Eutaw House, Baltimore, is in the city, on a short visit to friends.

Silas Johnson (colored), from Richmond city, was received at the penitentiary yesterday to serve a term of one year for grand larceny. Cunningham and W. G. re the judges of the drill, was received at the penitentiary yesterday to serve a term of one year for grand larceny.

Mr. M. R. Pace, who now fills the position of foregan on the Norfolk Pilot.

was in the city yesterday, having come Mr. Macon J. Cease, of 802 east Mar-shall street, who has been quite sick for a week, is greatly improved, and hopes to be out to-day.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of R. E. Lee Camp will hold its annual meeting at Lee Camp Hall Wednesday evening, Novem-ber 6th, at 4 P. M.

Mrs. Alexander Cameron and family have returned from their country seat. "Cameron Lodge," where they spent the summer and autumn.

Mr. E. L. Brooking has left for a visit to the Atlanta Exposition and from there will make a business trip through Mississippi and other southern States. Invitation cards have been issued for he marriage of Miss Jennie Morecock, lice of Mr. A. R. Binford, to Mr. D. W. ims, to occur on the 14th of this month. Mrs. J. Mason Miller, of Staunton, formerly Miss Frances Young, of this city, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. James H. Anderson, 404 east Franklin. Mr. J. T. Gates, of the Richmond Dairy, after four weeks' vacation visiting friends and an extended trip to the Atlanta Exposition, has returned to the

Mrs. Otelia Mahone and her daughter. Mrs. McGill, were in the city yesterday in conference with counsel with reference to settling up the estate of General Ma-

Cards have been issued for the mar-riage of Mr. L. C. Figg and Mrs. L. E. W. Hammond at Venable-Street Baptist church Tuesday, November 12th, at 11

Mr. and Mrs. Decatur Axtell returned to the city a few days ago from the Virginia Hot Springs, Miss Bey, a niece of Mrs. Axtell, accompanied her and will be her guest for several weeks.

Rev. Father de Dumynck has returned from Fredericksburg, where he officiated last Sunday. Bishop Van de Vyver has not as yet appointed a successor to the late Father James Kenefick, but expects to do so in a day or two.

The funeral of Mr. John Messerschmidt, whose death was announced in yesterday's Dispatch, will take place from St. John's German Evangelical church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The interment will be made in Shockoe Cemetery.

The Committee on Entertainment of the Pickett Camp, C. V., have decided to give a minstrel performance at either the Theatre or Academy the latter part of this month, to raise funds for the intertainment of Confederate veterans at the grand reunion here next May. The ervices of the Freeman & Wilson Mintrel Show have been volunteered and ccepted.

A largely attended business meeting of the McGill Catholic Union was held Mon-day night and matters of importance to the society were discussed. The members look forward to next Monday night with pleasure, as Captain Frank Cunningham ins prepared a neat programme for that evening. Ladies are invited. On next Tuesday night this society will attend the War of Roses bazaar in a body, and will wear their colors.

NEW YORK, November 5. (Special.)—
E. Mitteldorfer, Albert; E. H. Clowes, St. Dennis; E. F. Morton, Belvidere; I. Kaufman, J. Edel, Hoffman; A. J. Marcuse, C. A. Taylor, Imperial; J. C. Edwards, St. Cloud; R. E. Hotse, Metropole.

THEIR MIXED ORDERS

The Architecture of the University

JEFFERSON'S

tail-The Additions to the Original and the Modern Structures

The reproduction from the November 1894) No. of the University of Virginia Peebles is timely. The article was en "Thomas Vefferson; Architect":

miversity buildings were made by Mr. Jefferson, assisted by his granddaughter, attempt to make reproductions, except in tions and the details of the order used were taken from some structure, but no attempt was made to reproduce that For example: The pavilions now occupied by Professors Garnett and Peters, pied by Professors Garnett and Peters, are credited to the "Ionic of the Temple of Fortuna Virilis." A giance at a cut of the temple will show that use was made only of the order, not of the design of the temple. And so aiso in regard to the 'Doric and Ionic of the Theatre of Marcelius,' which we find in two other resultings.

pavilions.
"In the rotunda, however, an entirely different phase of the question presents itself. The drawing made by Mr. Jefferson for this building contains the following: Rotunda reduced to the proportions of the Pantheon, and accommodated to the purposes of a library for the university, with rooms for drawing, music, examinations, and other accessory purposes—the diameter of the building (77 feet) being one half that of the Pantheon, consequently one fourth its are and one eighth its volume."

consequently one fourth its are and one eighth its volume."
"It will be noted, however, that the rotunda differs from the Pantheon, in the following respects: The portice of the rotunda is Hexa-style; that of the Pantheon is octa-style; the side belfries are omitted; the main cornice of the rotunda is continued around the building. Again, in the rotunda, a circle, drawn with its centre in the centre of the structure, is tangent to the ground-line and to the outside lines of the side walls, as well as to the dome. This is not exactly the case in the Pantheon, for here the diameter of the dome and the distance from the floor-line to the highest point of the dome are the same.

POINTS OF DETAIL. "Whatever differences there may be in soints of detail, there is no doubt that the points of detail, there is no doubt that the effect of the buildings as a whole is singularly inspiring and grand. The shadows of remote antiquity are cast upon those beautiful, grassy lawns which form the campus; or, shall we say, the Campo-Santo of the University of Virginia? There in the Theatre of Marcellus, dwells the household of Professor Minor. Yonder are reminders of the Baths of Caracalla, of the Baths of Diocletian, and of the Temple of Fortuna Virilis. And there, at the upper or northern end of the quadrangle, stands the Roman Pantheon, the temple of all the gods, reduced to one half its original size, but still majestic and imposing. This gods, reduced to one had the distinct size, but still majestic and imposing. This building, with its rotunda, upon which Jefferson spent as much pains as Michael Angelo did upon the dome of St. Peter's, is used for the library and for various lecture-halls. Young people dance mer-rily under that stately dome at the end of the academic year. The young monks thus escape from their cells into the of the academic year. The young monks thus escape from their cells into the modern social world. How charmingly old Rome, mediaeval Europe, and modern America blend together before the very eyes of young Virginia!

"And we may well pause here and ask why it is that, while Jefferson's scholastic plan has been watched with such plous solicitude, his architectural scheme has been so desecrated. It is a fact that, with one exception, all the additions to the original buildings violate Mr. Jefferson's scheme most flugrantly. Yet, when we examine the matte, it is easy to see how this has happened. We will pass, if you please, the addition to the long rectangular annex to the rotunda, in which it was vainly hoped by repeating the porch at the new end to preserve the harmony. The principal additions of the university in more recent time have been the medical hall, the chemical laboratory, the Brooks museum, the chapel, and the symmasium. The medical hall and the chemical laboratory are purely utilitarian buildings, which do not assert themselves, yet careratory are purely utilitarian buildings, which do not assert themselves, yet care-fully detailed classic entrances would have done much to secure harmony. The first building to make an irreparable break in the plan was the Brooks museum. This building (equipment and plans) was a gift to the institution. plans) was a gift to the institution. The visitors were only concerned with it to the extent of accepting it. The architects who planned it either falled to visit the university before doing so or were possessed of a greater share of iconoclasm than falls to most mortals. The chapel is of stone, in the Gothic style, and has been the subject of much severe criticism, notably from Amelie Rives.

BETTER OF BRICK

BETTER OF BRICK.

"There can be no doubt that it would have been better to have built it of brick in the classic style, but whether any one is to be criticised for it is a doubtful question. This building was erected by the long continued and most earnest effort of the ladies of the university, and we incline to believe that when the end came in view the style of design was completely lost sight of in the joy that the building was really to be built-that the institution was to have a suitable edifice for religious worship at last. edifice for religious worship at last.

that the institution was to have a sultable edifice for religious worship at last.

"As we have said, the chapel was built by subscription, the museum was a gift, and it was only in the Fayerweather Gymnasium that the visitors exercised a controlling voice. While no copy of any classic structure, yet the building follows the lines laid down by Jefferson, being classic in feeling and in detail.

"May we not hope that in all future additions to the university, no matter how unimportant the structure may appear, the visitors will bear in mind the following memorable words of Jefferson, words as true, and perhaps more needful to-day than when first written, words which it would be well to have upon the walls of all rooms in which committees having charge of public buildings, deliberate: Besides, how is a taste in this beautiful art to be formed in our countrymen unless we avail ourselves of every occasion when public buildings are to be erected of presenting to them models for their study and imitation."

THE WILLIAMS MURDER TRIAL. Medical Testimony Resumed-

May Last Ten Days Longer.

May Last Ten Days Longer.

SALUDA, VA., November 6.—(Special.)—
On last Saturday the County Court of this county adjourned to meet again this afternoon. The court is still engaged on the trial of Mrs. Williams for the murder of her husband, Ferdinand Williams. Before adjourning on Saturday, however, three witnesses were examined in behalf of the Commonwealth.

Mrs. Amanda Haynie was sworn and testified that a year or more ago Mrs. Williams said to her that if he (maning the deceased) was home all the time, one or the other would have to die. Mrs. Deihmeyer, who is now in the jail at Northumberland, followed Mrs. Haynie, and testified that Mrs. Williams came to her house quite often, and sometimes Albert would go back with her. She stated that she went to Mrs. Williams's house and told her to let her son alone, that she did not consider their relations improper, but that her son had become more cruel to her. Mrs. W. E. Soenece was the only other witness examined on Saturday.

Court reconvened this afternoon about a of cock. The irst witness examined was Dr. W. G. Smith, who was recalled to

A TRAMP STEALS A BIKE

He Is Captured at Littleton While

Riding the Wheel. WELDON, N. C., November 5 .- (Spe cial.)-A tramp yesterday stole Mr. cial.)—A tramp yesterday stole Mr. H. L. Harvey's bleycle from in front of the Western Union telegraph-office. Mr. Harvey is day operator, and is a member of a Richmond 'cycle club. As soon as he discovered his loss he notified all the officers along the various lines of railroads leading from here, and this morning the thief was captured at Littleton, riding the stolen wheel. He wanted to fight when the officers arrested him, and said the wheel was his property, and that he bought it in New York. Mr. Harvey, however, had telegraphed the number and make of his "bike," and that settled it. settled it.

The thief and wheel were brought dow:

The thier and wheel was iden-tified; so was the thief, for witnesses had seen him loafing about the front of the office. Mayor Goach gave him a hear-and, and then bound him over to the Su-perior Court. In default of bail be was Thursday.

The most of the crops have been housed, and the cotton is all picked out. Farmers say the crop is exceedingly short.

FUSION TALK.

I asked one of the most prominent third-party men in the county what he thought of a fusion with the Republicans next year. He said that politics were gulet now in his section, but that he would advocate any measure next year to beat the autocrats, and that the next campaign would be exceedingly warm.

MISS LANGHORNE'S WEDDING. Mr. Gibson and His Party to Arrive

Here This Morning. Society here is all astir over the wed ding to take place at St. Paul's church at noon to-morrow, when Mr. Charles Dana Gibson, the celebrated New York artist will lead to the altar Miss Irene Langhorne, of this city. The details for the approaching nuyrials are about complete. Admission to the church will be by card. Mr. Gibson and his party will arrive in the city this morning, and will have apartments at the Jefferson. Among them will be: Mrs. C. D. Gibson, mother of the groom-elect; Mrs. Langdon Gibson, his sister-in-law; Miss Annie Gibson, Misses Benedict, of New York; Miss Rice, of Boston; Mrs. Morris, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Frank Dick, of Philadelphia, and Miss Wright, also of the Quaker City. Messrs. Craven, of England, are also here to attend the marriage.

come, and will go from here to visit Dr.
Page's old home in Hanover. Dr. and Mrs. Page are now building a handsome residence in Washington, which they will occupy as soon as it is finished; mean while, they will continue to live in the while, they will continue to live in the house in that city which they have remed. At "Brown Hill," Halifax county, this evening at 9 o'clock, Colonel Frederick Pleasants, of the Governor's staff, will be married to Miss Emma Maxwell Barksdale, a daughter of Colonel Clement C. Barksdale, formerly of this cfty. Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge will perform the ceremony, A large party of Richmond friends of the couple, including Governor O'Ferrall and staff, will leave for the Barksdale home at noon to-day.

He Has Not as Yet Joined His Wife-The Washington Marriage. The movements of Mr. George S. Maxwell, until recently the manager of the Mason Telephone Company, continue shrouded in mystery. It was learned shrouded in mystery. It was learned yesterday that the gentleman has not resolved his wife, who went to Kentucky a day or two before the marriage of Miss Rosalle Gottleib to one George S. Maxwell, in Washington.

Neither the friends of the Gottliebs nor the acquaintances of Mr. Maxwell, in this city have received any intimation of the movements of the party. The case is being worked up, and developments are expected shortly.

is being worked up, and developments are expected shortly.

The Washington Star says of the marriage performed at the Catholic University by Bishop Keane:

The court records of this city show that a marriage license was issued to George S. Maxwell, of Louisville, Ky,, and Rosaile M. Gottlieb, of Richmond. The license was issued October 26th, and Maxwell first stated that he was from Richmond, but afterwards erased this and mond, but afterwards erased this and changed it to Louisville, Ky. No return from a minister has yet been received and there is no record of the marriage

Death of Mr. Ruff.

Mr. Peter Ruff died at his residence, No. 411 west Clay street, Monday night, in the 33th year of his age.

The deceased was born and reared in this city, and had many warm friends here. For many years he conducted a grocery and fancy store on north Fifth street, but his declining health compelled him some time ago to rettre from business, Mr. Ruff was never married. He leaves four brothers-Messra, Louis, Wran, and Henry, of this city, and Mr. John Ruff, of North Curolina.

The funeral will take place from his late residence this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the interment will be made in Shockee Cemetery.

MUNICH. November 5.—A portion of the newly-constructed Schwanthaler pas-sage collapsed with a dreadful crash this morning, burying fifteen workmen under the ruins. Five were taken out dead, and six dying. Others are still under the

ST. LOUIS, MO., November 5.—A spe-lal to the Chronicle from Galveston, lex., shows that last night Police-Officer lenry Biernan shot and killed Kittie loiden, and then placed a revolver to its breast and sent two bullets crashing

Beauty | Found Purity Cuticura

Sketch of His Life-Demurrer in the Drumwright Case

PETERSBURG, VA., November 5.special.)-Information has been received re by relatives of the death, at his R. Cowles, for many years a resident of Petersburg, and closely connected with many of our best people. Deceased was a son of the late Rev. H. B. Cowles, who was for many years an earnest and effec-tive preacher in the Virginia Conference and who, at various times, was Presiding ricts in the conference.

Judge Cowles, who was then res in Petersburg, went into the war as a member of the Petersburg Riffemen, Pweifth Virginia Regiment, in 1961, and twetth virgina Regiment, in 1881, took part in the battles fought by Mahone's Brigade until, at the battle of Brandy Station, August 1, 1863, he was so seriously wounded as to incapacitate him for active service in the field thereafter. He was recognized as one of the bravest and most gallant fighters in Mahone's Rrigade. one's Brigade.
After the war the deceased studied lav

After the war the deceased studied law and went to Texas to practice his profession, where he attained eminent success, and arose to the honorable position of judge. He was a brother-in-law of the late Hon. E. M. Mann, for many years Judge of the Hustings Court of this city, and was widely known and respected here. He was a man of exalted character.

DEMURRED TO THE EVIDENCE. In the Hustings Court to-day the case of Drumwright's Administrator against the Petersburg Street Railway Company, for $5,000 damages, for the negligent killing of the boy, Drumwright, was called for trial. The defendant's counsel offered a demurrer to the evidence, and the case was continued until to-morrow, when argument will be heard.

The case presents some interesting when argument will be heard.

The case presents some interesting points which may result in the submission of the case to the decision of the Court itself. A demurrer to evidence is rarely a safe proceeding. The practice in Virginia is not to discharge the jury, in such cases, from giving a verdict, but to allow the jury to file a verdict subject to the decision of the Court upon the de-

PERSONAL AND GENERAL NEWS. Mr. R. C. Scott to-day received a telegram from Warrenton, Va., announcing the serious illness of his daughter, Miss Nannie, a most lovely and charming young lady, who has a host of friends in Nannie, a most lovely and charming young lady, who has a host of friends in this city.

Miss Minnie Jahnke, of Richmond, who has for some days been visiting in the family of Postmaster Smith, in this city, left for her home this morning.

On Sunday morning, while the Rev. Mr. Mitchell, rector of St. Stephen's (colored) Episcopal church, in this city, was engaged in conducting the services at his church, a burglar entered his residence, next door to the church, went through the several rooms, and stole the money left therein by the rector.

It is announced that on the 12th of this month, at the High-Street Methodist Episcopal church, Miss Minnie L. Burton, a charming young lady of this city, and Mr. R. H. O. Kennan, a popular young merchant, will be married.

The brief of Colonel James D. Brady. counsel for Mr. R. T. Thorp, contestant for Mr. W. R. McKenney's seat for this district in the next Congress, in reply to Mr. McKenney's effective answer to Thorp, has been received. It has caused much comment among parties whose names are mentioned therein.

United States Commissioner R. A.

Thorp, has been received. It has caused much comment among parties whose names are mentioned therein.

United States Commissioner R. A. Young had before him this morning the cases of two parties on board the steam tug E. B. Lane of Richmond, each charged with assaulting the other on board the boat at City Pohnt. The warrants, however, were mutually withdrawn before the Commissioner, and the cases were dismissed. The trouble occurred bewere dismissed. The trouble occurred be

MR. MASSEY'S VIEWS

Result of His Conference with the Board of Visitors. CHARLOTTESVILLE, November (Special.)—The Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia invited Hon. John E. Massey, Superintendent of Public Instruction, to meet with them on the 4th instant. At the conclusion of their conference they unanimously passed a vote of thanks to Mr. Massey for his assistance in their deliberations.

Mr. Massey was subsequently interviewed as to his views of the burning of the rotunda and annex, and what should be done to repair the damages done to the university, to Virginia, and to the cause of education by the confiagration, as follows:

university, to Virginia, and to the cause of education by the conflagration, as follows:

What, in your opinion, Mr. Massey, was the origin of the fire which destroyed the rotunda and public hall of the university on the 2th of October, and upon whom does the responsibility for their destruction rest?

The origin of the fire is, and in all probability, ever will be a matter of uncertain conjecture. It was one of those mysterious events which cannot be satisfactorily accounted for. This being the case, responsibility for it cannot be charged to any one. Neither negligence nor the want of due cape can be charged to any one. Neither negligence nor the want of due cape can be charged to any one who is in any way connected with the university.

Do you think the university ought to be rehabilitated? and, if so, what is your plan for doing it?

To your first question, there can be but one answer. Virginia never gave birth to any other civilian to whom she and the whole country owe so much for his great and various services as they do to Thomas Jefferson. Invaluable as his other services were, the establishment of the university was the crowning glory of his life, and from its foundation to now it has been the pride and glory of Virginia, and the admiration of all friends of education which Mr. Jefferson so earnestly advocated, ne true friend of education can ever consent to see the capstone of that system lose a tittle of its former power for usefulness.

To your second question I answer: The first thing to be done is to restore the rotunda and its wings as soon as possible, and as nearly as possible as they were before the conflagration. These and all subsequent buildings should be made fire-proof.

So soon as these are completed a public hall of ample size and accommodations about the process of the conflagration, and the herected in some location apart were before the confiagration. These and all subsequent buildings should be made fire-proof.

So soon as these are completed a public hall of ample size and accommodations should be erected in some location apart from them. This should be followed by the erection of other buildings designed to enlarge the capacity of the university and afford ample accommodations for receiving and instructing both sexes.

How would you raise the money necessary to meet the expenses which would be incurred by the repairs and improvements you propose?

I would appeal to every friend of chucation, and especially to every alumnus of the university, and every teacher and scholar in both the public and private schools of Virginia for voluntary contributions. These each and all, should exteem it a privilege and honer to share in the restoration and enlargement of this grandest institution of learning in the South, if not on this Continent; and if it could be known, as I believe it will be at no distant day, that our daughters as well as our sons would share the valuable instructions given here, there would be a double incentive to contribute to it. But while I would thus appeal for voluntary aid, and while I hope that some marble by such a donation as will place the university up: such footing as its most. himself a monument more lasting than marble by such a donation as will place the university up, such footing as its most scalous friends wish to see it. I would appeal to the Legislature to make such an appropriation as would not only fully restore the fire, but so enlarge its capacity as to afford the most ample facilities for the thorough education of both our sons and our daughters. This appeal cannot be disregarded. This is pre-eminently the work and duty of Virginia. She cannot afford to neglect it, and no member of her Legislature should besistate to meet the obligation. Will the condition and resources of Virginia justify such an appropriation as you think count to be made?

The Store Crowded Every Hour of the Day.

An unparalleled list of bargains to choose from. Here's prices that circumstances make less than usual. Merchants are trying to stem the tide—don't like this cutting prices less than usual. But don't blind yourself to your own interest--shop here--that's all the proof you will need that we're under-selling every dry-goods store in Richmond.

YESTERDAY'S ARRIVALS INCLUD-

More Colored Dress Goods, More Coats and Capes.

More Black Dress Goods. More Boys' Clothing. More Ladies' and Children's Sho

THE FINEST MOQUETTE RUGS, meaning the best quality made, the prettiest patterns made, and perfect in prettiest patterns made, and perfect in every respect, are to be sold for $1.69 each. Size 27 inches wide, 62 inches long. The largest size, 36 inches wide 72 inches long, for $2.49.

More than 600 of them to be sold, but the town is turning out for the extraordinary bargains here, and we would ask you to come some time this week. HERE ARE THREE CASES of White Crochet Guilts, not skimpy, mean of White Crochet Qulits, not skimpy, mean ones, but 2 yards wide and 2 1-4 yards long, such as would cost us at the mills about 75c. The price is to be 51c, each

Ready-Made Skirts of Fancy, All-Bisch Crepon, stiff lined godets and very full. They would cost us about $2.50 if bought regularly, but these can be sold for $1.55. A little lot of one-dollar twiff Cash-merette Wrappers, lined waists, full sleeves, and bow collars, are to be sold eleeves, and bow collars, are to be sold for 55c.

Ready-Made Infants' Cloaks, sizes 6 months to 5 years.

Solld Color Elderdown Flandels, trimmed in White Augors Fur, full sleeves, and gathered at yokes. Can be sold for 59c. They are wonders.

More than 1,200 yards of Silkoline Draperies, nearly a yard wide. Almost every color and pattern; in pieces of 1 to 10 yards. You are welcome to come, pick them over, and buy what you want at 11-2c. a yard. These same goods sell from the piece at 121-2 to 10c. yard.

Haven't you supplied your girl with one of those soft woollen Tam o'Shanters; better had from the great lot here, while we are selling.

The 45c. ones for 25c.

The 50c. ones for 25c.

Meyers-6th & Broad Meyers-6th & Broad

This Has Been Quite a SUCCESSFUL

in the history of this business. Lots of new things displayed in every department. Foresight on the part of our buyers not only increases business here, but places us in a position to offer goods now at prices that we've heretofore been unable to offer.

To-day's Interesting Items 'll bring crowds and make this a lively store.

BETTER BE HERE.

Boys' Department. (Brough clothing here to supply all the

63 pairs Knee Pants, strongly made, 43c 36 pairs Blue and Black Cheviet Knee Pants (worth more money), 48c

10 pairs Boys' Knee Pants for 19c.
Boys' Cape Overcoats in Grav, very nobby and stylish, ages 6, 7, and 8, $2.98.
Boys' Brown, and Dark Mixture Suits, ages 4 to 13, durably mais—for this sale,
$1.69.

SPECIAL --

Ladies' Wrappers. Ladies' Calico Wrappers, nice ones, 75c, waite, (worth $1.)

Ladies' Calico Wrappers 'all colors) in dark and light, nicely made, for Towels and Flannels. Turkish Bath Towels, sizes 42x22, good 125c. Turkish Bath Towels, 50x25 inches, worth 374c.—now they're 25c. Striped, Figured, and Dotted French Flannels, excellent values for 50c. Good Shaker Flannels, yard wide,

Extra large size All-Linen Huck Towels, 47x27, worth more, now 23c, 23c, Eed Flannel, good 25c, quality, 15c, Red Twill Flannel, 40c, grade, for 25c. Fine Linen Drawn-Thread Damask Towel, worth 75c, and $1, now they red Towel, worth 75c, and $1, now they red Towel, worth 91.75, now Boys Sweaters, good ones, Ladies' Wool Sweaters, only Underwear for Men.

Men's 75c. Natural Wool Shirts for Men's 50c. Natural Wool Shirts now 43c. Gentlomen's $1.50 Red and Gray Shirts and Drawers, old sizes, all wool. $1. "Wright's" Health Piecce Lined Under-wear, hygienic, $1. Wool Mixed Shirts and Drawers (all sizes),

All-Wool Ribbed Shirts and Drawers (ex cellent quality), Our Cloaks.

About 75 last year's garments—were $15, $12.50, and $10, now $2.50. few last year's garments, were $20, $20, and $18, now $7.50. A large stock of this season's newsat gar-ments—the largest Cloak stock in this city, so to speak—everything tast's stylish is here, and you'll get it at the

VERY LOWEST PRICE.

Other Things.

250 separate Coats for bovs, ages 16 years, single and double-br light and dark, a job— Hight and dark. a job—

Misses' Tam o' Shanters, all colors, for school wear, 48c.
Ladies' Skirt Patterns, dark colors, Grays, &c., worth 375c., for 25c.
Double Tinsei Heat-Rest, fringed, 95c., Ladies' Crochef Skirts in Pink, Blue, Redict, worth $1.75, now $1.95.

THALHIMER'S

ONB PRICE HOUSE, BROAD AND FIFTH. ········

LYNCHBURG, VA., November 5.—(Special.)—Mr. Dennis A. Hurley, a popular young business-man, and Miss Margaret J. Lawson, daughter of the late Joseph Lawson, were married at the residence of the pastor of the Church of the Holy Cross at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. J. J. McGurk officiating, Owing to the recent death of the bride's father the marriage was very quiet, only a few relatives of the contracting parties being present. The happy couple left on the southern-bound train for the Atlanta Exposition.

KANSAS CITY, MO., November 5.—The Missouri University alumni, of this city, met in the Midland Hotel last night to take action on the death of Eugene Field. A motion was made and carried that in view of Mr. Field's fondness for children, the entire contribution for the intended banquet to have been given Mr. Field last night be turned over to the Children's Home. GLASGOW, November 5.—The Clyds shipballders began their promised lock-out to-day by paying of and suspending by percent, of their workmen. The Clyds budders are acting in harmony with the Belfast shipbuilders, whose employees are on strike.

Ladies' Home Journal

The most direct way to money-saving is to take the straightest line from your home to "The Boston" One-Price Clothing House, 1009 E. Main St. An incomparable variety of Suits, Overcoats, Furnishings, and Hatsawaits your coming. The cumulative power of a thoroughly progressive business offers you opportuni-ties which give added and unquestioned proof of this store's leadership in MOZART ACADEMY.

MATINEE AND EVENING. CHARLES D. HANVORD

and a Supere Company of Players, senting on an elaborate scale AT THE MATINEE-Romeo and J TO NIGHT-Damon and Pythias. "WAR OF THE ROBE" BACAGE for the beauty of the Virginia House in Incurables, to be held at the Regiments Armory, compassing out the Regiments and conflicting until Saturday high November 18th. Quantum Standard November 18t